Tomahawk Sponsored Tilt to Reward Campus "All Americans" With Touch of Big Time in Gym

COUSY TO REFEREE; M.V.P. TO BE CHOSEN BY A.A. OFFICIALS

By TOM HEWES

See Page 9 for All-Star Roster and Pictures

The intramural All-Stars under the direction of coach Joe Mullaney will play the Holy Cross Freshman Team at 7:15 p.m. Tuesday night at the gym. The game, which is expected to become a traditional affair, is being sponsored by the TOMAHAWK.

Bob Cousy and Jim Hamilton, leading Intramural referee, will handle the officiating.

A trophy will be awarded to the Intramural player who turns in the best performance of the evening. Varsity coach "Buster" Sheary, assistant coach Bob Curran, and Faculty Moderator of Athletics, Father Tiernan, will make the trophy selection. The presentation will be made to the all-stars at the conclusion of the game.

A contribution of $.10 will be collected at the door for the benefit of the Jesuit Missions.

Mullaney has been drilling the Intramuralites since Tuesday and promises to have the squad in the best shape possible. He will have but four nights of practice, however, to whip 12 individuals into a co-ordinated unit. The team will consist of both league's first team All-Stars plus selected members of the second team All-Stars.

The freshmen will present the same lineup that has seen them romp to 16 victories in 17 starts and thus gain recognition as the outstanding freshman team in the East. Bob McLarnon, Gene Mann, Jim Dilling, Greg Hamil, and Bob McDonough, will be in the Frosh starting lineup.

Junior Class Philosophers Defend Theses in Scholastic Disputation

By PAUL GANNON

Last Monday evening Room 50 Carlin was a whirlpool of syllogisms swollen by a deluge of distinctions, as The Aquinas Circle vessel, with Fr. O'Mahony at the helm, and with many of the old hand student philosophers on deck, sailed for the first time this year into the troubled waters of a Scholastic Disputation.

Tom Cody and Frank Comerford had the loyal task of defending five theses in Epistemology and Ontology respectively; teams composed of Frank Crowley - Paul Gannon and Jim Nichols - Fred Fuerbach each objected to one thesis in epistemology and ontology respectively. At least 15 others were in attendance to see that Father Cotter's ABC was properly defended. Both defenders had to prove the particular thesis that each objector

Golden Jubilee Day Of Prayer

Students' Sodalities Schedule "Watches" For Sunday, April 3rd

The combined Students' Sodalities of Our Lady, together with the Catholic Alumni Sodality of Worcester County, will sponsor a Papal Day of Prayer and Reparation on Sunday, April 3rd. The Holy Father has set aside this day, the Golden Jubilee of his ordination as a priest, to be a day of reparation asking the faithful throughout the world to join with him in praying for the remission of sins.

On Sunday, April 3, in St. Joseph's Memorial Chapel, Solemn Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will begin immediately after the 10:30 Mass. It will close with Solemn Benediction at 9:00 P.M. Reverend Father Rector will open and close the Exposition.

All students are urged to take part in the Guard of Honor by volunteering their services for a half-hour "watch" within the Sanctuary wearing cassock and surplice. Student "watches" will be kept from 11:30 A.M. until 6:00 P.M.; from six to nine the "watches" will be furnished by the Alumni Sodalists.

For the convenience of those students willing to be generous with Christ and His Vicar on earth the following application for appointment to one of the half-hour "watches" is made available. Please fill it out and place it in the wire basket on the counter at the Discipline Office. You will receive your notice of appointment.

Senior Ball Set At Busy Meeting

Rector Offers Kimball For Event; Bossetti, Berry Class Marshalls

The highly controversial and widely-discussed question of a location for the Senior Ball was finally settled on Tuesday at a meeting of the class. Phil Murphy, acting president of the seniors, read a letter from Father Rector stating that he had given his permission to use Kimball Hall for the June 8 affair. The announcement was received with great pleasure by the Seniors.

The election of Guy Bossetti and Dick Berry as class marshalls for graduation exercises was disclosed next on the agenda. Discussion then took place on the question of class gifts. Ballots will be passed out this week to present members of the Senior class while February graduates will be contacted for their votes through the mail.

Among other suggestions talked over were those dealing with a father-son day, a Senior banquet, a proposed class outing and softball game. The outing item met with general approval.

Better attendance at meetings was stressed. In connection with this idea several suggestions were made for getting more members of the class to attend. It was admitted, however, that the problem is one which is common to all classes and that any solution will have to come from the entire four classes.

ART EXHIBIT SHOWS TALENT

Roberts, Mina, Stanola, Meisse, Fahey Compete

Spring came early this week to O'-Kane lounge in the form of the First Annual Art Exhibit to be held by the students at the college. Since last Tuesday the walls of sedate old O'-Kane lounge have been resplendent with examples of student art.

Student artists Francis Roberts, Antonia Mina, John Stanola, Theodore Meisse and Richard Fahey have put their best works into the stiff competition, and from the turnout in voting it can easily be seen that some very talented men have been living on the Hill.

The polls will close at midnight tonight, at which time the votes will be tabulated. The winners will be announced tomorrow. The entries have been divided into two classes, and ribbons will be awarded to the first man of each class according to the number of votes he has received.

Father John Courtney Murray, S.J., To Deliver 1949 Fenwick Lectures

Prominent Jesuit Political Scientist to Talk On "Freedom of Church, Freedom of Society"

REV. JOHN COURTNEY MURRAY, S.J.

SPEECHES TO FEATURE MODERN PROBLEMS OF CHURCH AND STATE

On Monday, Wednesday, and Friday of next week, Father John Courtney Murray, S.J., will deliver the 1949 Fenwick Lectures at 8:00 P.M. in Kimball Hall. His subject will be: "The Freedom of the Church and the Freedom of Society."

Cardinal Mindszenty, Bishop O'Connell, and Mrs. McCollum are names which indicate the timeliness of the topic adopted by Father Murray. Each of these names is associated with the problem of Church and State. Two decades ago it was Al Smith's candidacy for President that brought the subject to the forefront of American minds. Before that it was "Rum and Romanism." Can Catholics be good Americans? Does the Pope plot to run the White House? Are Catholics opposed to "separation of Church and State"? What is the Catholic doctrine on Church and State?

The outstanding American authority on this question is the Fenwick lecturer, Father Murray. He is Professor of Theology at Woodstock College, the Jesuit seminary in Maryland, and he edits "Theological Studies."

His views on the Supreme Court's decision on the McCollum case will be published in the forthcoming issue of the Duke University "Law and Contemporary Problems."

On Monday night, he will put the problem in its historical perspective; on Wednesday, he will discuss "The Modern Citizen Prince" and on Friday, "Toward a New Christendom."

65 KNIGHTS IN THIRD DEGREE

Alvin P. Grant Class Receives Major Honor

Sixty-five members of Crusader Council, Knights of Columbus, were received into the third degree of the order in impressive ceremonies conducted in Alhambra Hall last Sunday afternoon. District Deputy Charles A. Grant, Professor of Economics here, exemplified the major degree. He was assisted by Grand Knight Lawrence X. Dalton, Rev. Joseph F. Busam, S.J., Chaplain, and officers of Crusader Council.

The class of candidates was named the Alvin P. Grant Memorial Class, in honor of the memory of the late Mr. Grant, a Past State Warden and member of the Fourth Degree of the Order. He was the father of District Deputy Grant.

Grand Knight Dalton announces that Crusader Council has been selected.

Music Clubs Win Twofold Acclaim

St. Patrick Well Pleased With Fine Showings at Athol and Southbridge

Athol, Mass., welcomed the Holy Cross Music Clubs last Thursday, the day set aside for St. Patrick and all men from the old sod. The clubs, led by Mr. Bouvier, M.A., and accompanied by "Patrick" O'Cataudella, filled the Municipal Auditorium to capacity.

The audience was so well pleased that the soloists and the Glee Club were recalled several times. Joe Murphy and O'Cataudella were in especially good form. Murphy's voice seems to have been made for the airs of Eire. He outdid himself with a beautiful treatment of "Danny Boy."

The orchestra provided an Irish tinge to the program by its playing of old Irish favorites. The medley had everything from lyric ballads to the lilting jigs of the land of the leprechauns. The Glee Club added its bit to the festivities with a Fred Waring arrangement of "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms."

The "Pied Pipers" of Holy Cross made their way into the environs of Southbridge on Sunday night. The organization was under par as far as man power was concerned since 17 men were missing. The clubs overcame this difficulty however, and both the Glee Club and Orchestra displayed a vigor heretofore somewhat subdued. Mr. Bouvier's ability to adapt himself to such a situation aided no little in averting serious difficulties.

On Sunday the Music Clubs are scheduled to appear in a joint concert with the Regis College Glee Club in Boston. The Holy Cross-Regis concert is an annual affair.

BEHIND THE SCENES ALL-AMERICANS

Sometime in the near future the Intramural Basketball season of 1948-49 will close with the meeting of two fine teams, the Freshman basketballers and the Intramural All-Stars. This will be a fitting climax to a season which has been the most successful ever seen at Holy Cross. Year by year the Intramural basketball program has been gaining impetus until this year it has assumed proportions comparable to those of the Intramural football program at Notre Dame. Naturally in a setup as large as this, there is a lot of work to be done. There are the referees, the score keepers, the schedule makers and so on. All these together with Fr. Hart, Dave Manahan and Dan Moore are in great measure responsible for the extraordinary success which the program has enjoyed. Intramurals serve to strengthen the mind and character as well as the bodies of those who take part. They foster a spirit of competitive sportsmanship, of working with others to a common goal. They serve as a means of bringing together many Cross men who would not ordinarily meet. When the all-stars take the court against the Freshmen, we think it would be a fine gesture if as many students as had the time were in attendance. In this way the student body would show in a manner far better than mere words that they are grateful to Fr. Hart and the men who worked with him throughout the year. Incidentally, they might see a good ball game too.

"C. A."

The recent outbreaks among Communist sympathizers about the proposed North Atlantic Defense Pact may well point a lesson to the many of us who are too busy talking about the evils of the world to do anything about them. Certainly, although the Communists may be slightly confused in their thinking, there is nothing whatsoever wrong with their energy. When the party line says "give it a boost" they get behind Henry Wallace and his Progressives with every ability at their command. When the command is "tear it apart" they picket the court house and scream persecution from every roof-top in six counties. The phrase "Catholic Action" is becoming something of a bromide, but without a doubt it is the one sensible, effective answer to Communism and the other associated problems of today. Unless we are willing to do something to back up our professed beliefs we may soon find ourselves unable even to profess them.

THANK YOU

As is well known by now, at least to the members of the Senior Class, Fr. Rector has consented to permit the use of Kimball Hall for the Senior Ball on June 8. The TOMAHAWK feels that it is expressing the opinion of the entire Senior Class in conveying thanks to Fr. Rector for his consideration in the matter.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

March 21, 1949.

To the Editors of the TOMAHAWK
College of the Holy Cross
Worcester 3, Mass.

Dear Sirs:

Three weeks ago an editorial in your newspaper posed a very honest and well-meaning question. Why can a daily menu not be posted in Kimball Hall to meet half way those who are fasting during Lent? To the best of my knowledge the question has all but died on the editorial page, and yet to most, if not to all of the students with whom I have discussed it, the plan advanced seems feasible and quite desirable. Nothing is asked but this, that at some time between breakfast and the noonday plate, a menu for the next two meals be posted on a centrally located bulletin board in Kimball Hall. It is true that the Student Government has already offered the plan to the Kimball staff. It is true also, according to last week's TOMAHAWK, that these authorities have refused the plan on the ground that "it is impossible to foretell each day's menu". Am I to understand then that at any time between breakfast and the noonday meal the chefs are in doubt as to what they are preparing? Indeed I hope this is not the case. Surely then such an honest and

*I always knew you were the girl,
The only girl for me;
In virtue of your loveliness
Which is plain to see.*

*It's not the season turns my thoughts,
To thinking just of you;
For when I dream you're always there,
And I enjoy it, too.*

Or sonnets bright and gay;
These would be warm feelings
shown,
In my own humble way.*

A thought within me wakes;
Are you sure you're the girl,
That won the Irish 'stakes?*

Our ever-loving critic, Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam babbles, "The Roman Catholic Church does not believe in religious liberty" and "that case (the railroad-ing of Cardinal Mindszenty) from one point of view, stresses the validity of the American principle of separation of church and state." Very clever, Bromley; not too original but familiar. Both your statements, from every point of view, stress the validity of the Oxnamian principle of separation of thought and intelligence.

In the latter part of February the Juniors of St. Peter's College in Jersey City, held their annual Junior Prom. There was a group present especially for the modern jump brand of Elliot Lawrence, fresh back from a tour that took him to 40 colleges, reports that the livelier tunes are on the way out and sweet, smooth music is here to stay. But let's quote Elliot on the subject. "Rhumbas and sambas are definitely out. They've gradually been losing favor with the college crowd since the end of the war. Jump and bop tunes cause dancers to stop and crowd around the bandstand and watch an orchestra perform. They'll applaud, sometimes, when you finish—a sign they've enjoyed our music—not that they've enjoyed their dancing. But just try a Latin tune. You get no dancers, no applause, no nothin'. But it's when they're able to move around—hold each other close—in a slow, sweet number, that we get our best response." Good news—that means plenty of danceable music. A reason why I'll be there and why you should join me.

Observation on Cheating:

In his recently published book, "Inside the Campus", Dr. Charles E. McAllister reports a marked increase in cheating at almost every college he visited on a nationwide tour last year. He attributes the rise in cheating to the mishandling of so-called progressive education, disrupted family life, and the inordinate attention paid to grades of those who wish to go on to graduate schools.

QUEEN OF PROM TO BE CHOSEN

Students Must Submit Dates' Pics by April 26

The Junior Prom Committee today announced plans for the "Queen of the Prom Contest", which will be conducted under the chairmanship of Leonard Cody.

The contest will follow this pattern: The students will submit photos of their dates for the Prom, in accordance with the rules. From these photos, the ten best in the opinion of the judges, will be chosen as finalists. A notice, concerning the "chosen ones", will be posted on the Prom bulletin board. One of the ten will be chosen as queen on the night of the Prom, and the others will comprise her court. The judges will be announced on a later date.

General Chairman Ed Chandler emphasized the importance of the interest of the student body in the contest, and the necessity for promptness in the submitting of entries. Special emphasis was put on the deadline for entries, which is Monday, April 26.

Selections from "High Button Shoes" To Highlight Week's Broadcasting

Special programs and new, added attractions highlight the agenda of the week over the campus airwaves. WCHC is prepared to whirl you in music, enlighten you with knowledge, and excite you with varied entertainment. With a proportionate blend of transcribed recordings and original Holy Cross feature presentations, 645 is the place for you to glue your dial, if you haven't already done so.

Tonight, from 9 until 9:30, a steady patron of the airways is the "Sam and Angy" show. Popular tunes with clever instrumentals dominate the picture in this department. But it is from 9:30 to 10 o'clock that the big surprise unfolds itself! For at that time, the album of the famous Broadway musical, "High Button Shoes", is to be played. Songs will be styled by the original cast, including such stage celebrities as Phil Silvers, Nanette Fabray, Jack McCauley and Mark Dawson. Everybody has heard the top tunes which have emerged from this light musical comedy. Such songs as

"Papa, Won't You Dance With Me?", "You're My Girl", and "I Still Get Jealous", are among the many to be spun on WCHC's twin turntables. The melodies are too good to miss, so stay tuned!

Tomorrow evening, Friday, from 9 'til 9:30, the Radio Playshop presents an original script by a Holy Cross student, Dick Kusak, entitled "Ten Minutes to Live". The script is designed to present over the air the innermost thoughts of a condemned man a few minutes before being sent to the electric chair. At 10 p.m., "Bandland" takes the spotlight, with Rick O'Shea conducting his weekly tour of the best in popular music. A request show, Bandland's popularity speaks for itself.

Monday, 8:05 to 8:15, Warren B. O'Connor reviews the news. From 9 to 9:30, the Ave Maria Hour presents the life of St. Onofrio, an early second century hermit.

A special feature on Tuesday, 9 'til 9:30, will be Paul Gannon, Holy Cross junior, who is quite accomplished as a violinist. A member of the Philharmonic Orchestra string section, Paul will share the spotlight with some other H. C. student who possesses a talent, perhaps in a different line. From 9:30 until 10 o'clock, the Crusader Hit Parade is the topic of the hour.

Wednesday, 9 to 9:30, the weekly labor lecture will again hold forth. The speaker will be Mr. John J. DelMonte, the Commissioner of Labor for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Ed Brungard takes over at 10:15 for 15 minutes of his favorite topic, sports-casting.

Bowen Speaks On South America

Day Student History Society Hears Talk on Good Neighbor Policy

William C. Bowen told the Day Student History Society last Tuesday that South America is in a state of confusion because of the failure of the United States to continue its "Good Neighbor Policy." He cited the recent revolutions in Peru and Venezuela as proof. Bowen also declared that we have an obligation to help the people in South America to become educated.

Following his talk a heated discussion took place. A resolution that the United States extend its Marshall Plan to South America was defeated 14-10. But another resolution that the United States help the Catholic Church in these countries was passed without a dissenting vote. Sunday the Day Student group will send representatives to the Southern New England Peace Federation at Emmanuel College.

HELLENIC

Friday afternoon, the Hellenic Philogrammatic Symposium will continue its bi-weekly readings of Plato's "Republic," with a paper on Book III by James Schouman, '52. At the last meeting, Francis J. Bartram, '50, spoke on the second Book of the Republic and Plato's ideas on life and education in the well-ordered state, and his ideas on God.

The Friday meeting is at 4 p.m. in Room 51, Carlin. All students are invited.

CHOICES MADE FOR '49 GIFT

Sanctuary Lamp Wins Approval in Balloting

John Furey, Chairman of the Senior Class Gift Committee, has announced the results of the recent balloting for the choice of a gift to be presented to the college by the class. The proposed Sanctuary Lamp for St. Joseph's Memorial Chapel was approved as part of the gift. The ballots also revealed four other suggestions as possibilities.

A Book fund for Dinand Library appears to be the most favorable and practical gift thus far suggested, the Committee reports. The interest of the money set aside for this fund would amount to approximately $40 a year which would enable the Library to purchase one or two books a month. Book plates bearing the name of the class would be placed in each book provided in this plan and the fund would be perpetual due to the fact that the money was invested at interest. The committee recognizes that the Library lacks sufficient funds necessary for the maintenance of its high rating and for this reason feels that the gift would be appropriate and worthy of the Class.

Chairman Furey and his assistants Ennis McQuail and Fred Schlotei also announced a second plan which would call for the erection in the foyer of the Library, of a statue of some great Philosopher. The expense of such a gift, however, would be so great, that the Committee feels that it is impractical.

The third suggestion is for setting aside a fund from which to award, to the outstanding Senior of each succeeding class a medal based on scholarship and extra-curricular activities.

A fourth suggestion under consideration was for the presentation of a trophy case to the Athletic Association but this proposal is felt to be inadequate due to the perishable nature of the gift and the lack of necessity of such a relatively inexpensive gift.

Suggestions for a television set, a piano and a woven rug were rejected on the grounds that there was no permanence in such gifts, and that there is no place on campus suitable for the placing of such gifts. It was also pointed out that these gifts would benefit only a small segment of the student body.

Plans for the final selection include the mailing of ballots to all February graduates before the choice is made. The committee also emphasizes that any suggestions which are thought to be better than those mentioned will be welcome. Voting for the final selection will be held in one or two weeks.

Those Seniors who have been pledged to contribute to the class gift and who have not as yet done so are asked to contact John Furey or Tom Flynn.

MET CLUB TWIN BILL PREPARED

Tickets Now on Sale; Request for More Ads

Bob Scalera, Assistant Chairman of the Met Club Easter concert and dance, has released up to date reports on the progress of the various committees. Of primary importance is the report of J. Sheridan Conroy, Chairman of the Ticket Committee.

Students are requested to purchase their tickets as soon as possible, for the committee would like an approximate number of the couples that will attend the affair. Tickets are now available from representatives of respective corridors.

The second announcement released this week came from Don Flannery, Chairman of the Journal to be published for the dance. Advertisements are sorely needed for this publication and all those who can procure ads are asked to contact Flannery in Room 311, Carlin.

Harry Arnold, who has supplied the music for many past Met Club affairs, will play his "soft and sweet stuff" until 2:00 a. m. As has been announced before, the concert and dance will begin at 8:15 p.m. at the Cascade Room of the Hotel Biltmore and tickets are $3.00 per persons.

Collection Wins Approval of S.G.

Menu Question, Phone And Telegraph Service Discussed by Congress

Plans for the proposed raffle to have been sponsored by the Student Congress were changed to a student collection, at the meeting of the Congress last Tuesday evening. Dave Sullivan, treasurer, made his report on the raffle, and after a discussion by the Congress it was decided that it would be impractical. The Congress then decided to take up a collection from the student body about the 4th of April. The students will be notified about this in the near future.

Pres. Mark Atchison is to see Fr. O'Brien about having a menu posted before meals. Better mail and phone service for Wheeler Hall was also discussed. This matter has been presented to Fr. Deevy for his consideration. The motion for a return to a five cent cup of coffee was turned over to Mr. Moran who will look into this matter.

Members of the Student Congress have been issued an invitation to the Regional Congress of the NFCCS on April 29th. Dan Moore has resigned as chairman of the Social Action Committee, and Pres. Atchison has appointed Leon Kelley as new chairman for the remainder of the year.

Due to the large number of complaints received by the Congress on poor telephone and telegraph service, Ralph Diverio will see Fr. Deevy to discuss the possibility of improving the service. A list of students on each corridor will be posted by the Congress in the near future. The next scheduled meeting for the Student Congress is March 28th, at 7:30 p.m.

BOSTON CLUB PLANS EASTER DANCE IN CHESTNUT HILL

The Boston Club announces final plans for its Easter Dance. Ron O'Hanley and his committee, Bill Coughlan, Jack Casey, and John Costello have obtained the facilities of the Commonwealth Country Club, the finest and largest in the Greater Boston area. Located on Algonquin Road, in Chestnut Hill, not too far from the "Towers of the Heights", the Commonwealth is easily accessible.

Hal Reeves and his popular Boston orchestra will provide a fine danceable evening for all Cross-Boston men. Another highlight of that important Easter vacation date—Wednesday, April 20, is the buffet luncheon. An excellent menu—assorted sandwiches, cake, ice cream and coffee, prepared by the Country Club staff, will be served about 10:30 p.m.

The tariff for this Easter attraction is $2.40. An advance sale of tickets is desirable in order that the Country Club may suitably prepare for the Buffet luncheon.

The Annual Easter Dance, sponsored by the Worcester Undergraduate Club, took on added color when Dance Chairman Edward P. Reardon announced that the Wachusett Country Club would be the site of the semi-formal affair to be held on Monday evening, April 18, at 8 P.M.

Tabbed as the "social must" for all Worcester Club members, the dance is eagerly anticipated by a large number of alumni members who take active part in the "Spring Dance." Many students from various Catholic colleges who will be home on vacation are expected to attend.

The orchestra for the dance has not been selected as yet, but, according to Chairman Reardon, the field has been narrowed down to two. A positive decision on the selection is expected before the end of the week.

Assisting in arrangements for the affair are, tickets, Paul M. Couming, James J. Reardon, James W. O'Connell; orchestra, John J. O'Malley and William M. Russell; decorations, Joseph F. Whalen, Jr., and Lawrence J. (Turn to Page Ten)

K. of C. DANCE BIG SUCCESS

Large Turnout Attends St. Patrick Affair

Last Saturday night over a thousand students from the numerous girls' colleges invited and from the halls of Mount Saint James made the third "stag" dance the biggest success this year. The "stag or drag" St. Patrick's dance was sponsored by Crusader Council, Knights of Columbus who are celebrating their twentieth anniversary.

Over the bandstand where Bill Brady and his popular "Crusaders" furnished the music, hung the impressive Purple and White Crusader Council banner. Refreshments were served during the evening and at intermission Joe Murphy, the ever popular tenor, and Phil O'Rourke entertained with several Irish ballads and novelties. Sam Cataudella received his usual warm welcome.

The committee expresses its appreciation and thanks to all who attended and for the marvelous cooperation of all who helped to make the St. Patrick's dance the success it was.

Although as yet no specific figures have been announced, Bob Maney, Chairman of the Dance, said that the affair was a financial success. Mr. Maney was assisted by Phil O'Rourke, Jim McNamara and Nat Urso.

The members and the managers of the basketball team were honored guests of the committee.

Soph Oratorical

"Action" was the keynote of the debate held by the Sophomore Oratorical Society on Wednesday, March 16. Three different groups argued "Resolved: that the United Nations should exercise exclusive control of atomic power."

In the first group the victors were the negative team which was composed of Jim McIntyre and Ronnie Lynch as the main speakers, while Jim Hannan and Jim Doherty held down the rebuttals. Lynch was named the best speaker and Thomas McMahon of the affirmative was the best rebuttal.

A negative team again proved its prowess by capturing the Group II title. Jim Berry shared the main speaker's role with Bill O'Meara, the latter being named the best speaker. John Fitzsimmons, of the affirmative team, gained the honor of being named the best rebuttal despite the fact that the negative team of Tom Flynn and Tim Stodder were named the winners of the Group II rebuttal.

John Gearin and Tom Cullen of the negative battled victoriously as the main speakers while Bill Tonne and Jack Lucey garnered the place of honor for the rebuttalists. Tom Cullen was named the best speaker while Tom Ferrick of the affirmative won the best rebuttal title.

CROSS DEFEATS CANISIUS, 66-56, IN FINAL GAME

Mullaney Bows Out With 14 Points; MacKinnon Of Canisius Wins Trophy; Formon Drops in 19

Staging a strong finish, the Holy Cross Crusaders wrapped up their '48-'49 basketball season with a 66-56 conquest over a stubborn Canisius five. The game was played on St. Patrick's Day before 6,452 partisan fans at Buffalo's Memorial Auditorium.

The victory was the 19th in 27 starts for the Lester Sheary-coached boys, while Canisius went down to its 12th defeat in 28 games.

Joe Mullaney, playing his last game as a Crusader, celebrated St. Patrick's Day as a true Irishman by a sterling all-around performance. In addition to stealing the ball countless times and setting up numerous plays, Joe broke up a 39-39 tie late in the second half and put the Crusaders ahead to stay. He finished up the night with 14 points.

Cousy Misses Record

Individual game honors, however, went to Matt Formon, Holy Cross center, who netted 6 field goals and 7 free throws for 19 points. Tied with Mullaney at 14 markers was Bob Cousy, brilliant Crusader forward who wound up the campaign with 480 points, just 6 shy of his record season's total of 486 set last year. Cousy now has 1,193 points, 16 ahead of George Kaftan's former record. The Purple phenomenon still has another year to play. Bob McMullan, a tower under the boards, also contributed 14 points.

Dennis O'Shea, starting for the injured Frank Oftring, turned in a commendable performance for the Crusader cause, while scoring 5 points.

On the first play of the game, Formon took a pass from Cousy and curled in a layup. Canisius came back to tie it up on a push shot by Chollet. Then, Mullaney hit on a set, Formon tapped in a rebound which was followed by Cousy's two-pointer, to give the visitors an 8-3 cushion. This lead soon evaporated however as Canisius began to connect. The remainder of the first half was a saw-battle which saw first one team take the lead and then the other. With only a few seconds remaining in the initial half, Canisius held the upper hand 30-28 but Cousy pushed one home from the corner to knot the count at the 20-minute mark.

Mullaney Breaks Tie

The Crusaders jumped to a slight advantage at the beginning of the second half but the tenacious home outfit just wouldn't yield, and with about 10 minutes gone in the second half pulled even at 39-39. Here, Joe Mullaney took matters into his own hands and cut the cords with a long set shot to move the Purple out front to stay. McMullan followed this with a set, and Formon cashed in on a rebound. Maynard Shaus, Canisius forward dropped in a charity toss, but Mullaney sank a layup and Cousy drove through for another to up the Crusader advantage to 9 points. They were never headed.

Spirited Battle Seen For Starting Berths

With Old Man Winter putting the hex on the start of baseball practice here on the Hill Coach Jack Barry's charges will have to do some hustling in order to get in shape for the opening game which is only about three weeks away.

All that Barry has been able to do is work his pitchers and catchers out up in the field house and he has not as yet had a chance to look at the rest of his varsity material. The pitchers have been working hard and they should be ready to make a good showing on opening day.

Since the basketball season is over Matty Formon is due to start throwing sometime this week. Formon, along with Dick Shellenbach and Tom Donovan, who have been throwing since the first call came out, should form the backbone of the pitching staff. All three were members of the varsity last spring.

Bill Stetter and Ed Polak have both been handling the pitchers and these two afford plenty of depth behind the plate.

Other hurlers working out daily in the gym include Lou Lemay, Ed "Smoky" Connors, Jim O'Neill and Bob Driscoll, all juniors, while seven sophs are in the running, including the big three of last year's frosh team, Jim Tivnan, Frank O'Malley, and Joe Buerger. Other second year men out for the mound staff are Jack Francis, Frank Cavallerri, Bob Mitchell and Phil Speller. The last three are the only southpaws among the candidates.

The entire squad was scheduled to go outdoors yesterday but due to the morning rain and subsequent wet grounds, this drill was cancelled.

Canisius' top man was Bob MacKinnon who poured 16 points through the hoop. He was awarded the Rev. Frederick W. Hambling, S.J., Memorial Award as the game's outstanding player. Captain Leroy Chollet of the home team, who tallied 14 was presented with a wrist-watch before the game for his outstanding play as a member of the Canisius squad. He brought his season's total to 418 points, a new Canisius record.

All proceeds from the game went to the Jesuit Missionary Fund.

Crusader forward and Co-Captain Andy Laska missed the game due to illness while Frank Oftring, though not in uniform due to a knee injury, viewed the proceedings from the Holy Cross bench.

ROOM SELECTION

Tonight is the last night for Sophomore room selection, due to the holiday Saturday.

Cagers Name All Opponent Team

Colgate's Vandeweghe Leads Balloting; Two Kentuckians Picked

The All-Opponent team of the 1948-1949 Crusader basketball team was released today by the Athletic Office. Elsewhere on this page is the complete team lineup, the second team, and honorable mentions.

These players represent the best of the nations basketweavers who have faced the Cross this year. Colgate's outstanding Ernie Vandeweghe received the most votes. None of the opposing players was a unanimous choice, however, with Vandeweghe receiving 18 out of a possible 20 votes and Ed Macauley of St. Louis and Alex Groza of Kentucky each receiving 17.

Another noteworthy point is that Vandeweghe, Macauley and Groza were unanimous choices for All-America honors this year, while Kentucky's Ralph Beard, Wah Wah Jones and Jack Kerris of Loyola along with our own Bob Cousy, made second team on these same All-U.S. squads.

Each player on the Crusader team submitted his first and second teams, and three points were given for each man placed on a first team, and one for a man placed on the second team. The five opposing players receiving the highest total points were then placed on the first team, and the next five on the second team.

Any opposing player placed on one first team, or on two or more second teams, was placed on the Honorable Mention list.

Certainly no one can say Holy Cross doesn't play in rough company. Incidentally, both Cousy and Oftring thought that Vandeweghe was the top opponent.

H. C. WRESTLERS FORM INFORMAL TEAM FOR FUTURE COMPETITION

The prospect for a Holy Cross Wrestling Team looms for the coming years. Early in January, Freshman John Leemhuis, who wrestled for five seasons at strong Vincent High in Erie, Pa., decided to see if there was any interest in the sport.

Assisted by Art Ouilllette and Larry Silverson, he called for a meeting of those who would be interested in wrestling. Thirty-two candidates reported for the first session, and attendance at later meetings has been good.

There is a possibility of a match with a similar informal team from Harvard soon but otherwise the matmen will see no action this year. None of the candidates are Seniors and the outlook for next year is very promising. Lately the squad has been meeting twice a week at the old gym.

COUSY LEADS PURPLE SCORERS; NETS 480 POINTS; 17.8 AVERAGE

McMullan and Formon Are Runners-up on Club; Oftring Has Top Percentage from Foul Line

Rapid Robert Cousy led the Holy Cross scoring parade for the Purple hoopsters for the second straight year, as his fourteen points against Canisius ran his season's total to 480 counters. Though the mark is six points less than his all time record set last year, it still is the second highest mark in H.C. history. Never held to less than thirteen points in any contest, "The Cooz" hit for twenty or better eight times during the '48-'49 schedule.

The rest of the scoring is evenly divided with Co-captain Bob McMullan and Matt Formon.

Kaftan and Dermott O'Connell contributed 164 and 124 points respectively to the Holy Cross cause.

Cousy also had the top average per game with 17.8, Kaftan 11.5, O'Connell 8.8, McMullan 7.5, Formon 7.5, Oftring 6.7, and Laska 6.2 complete the list of those who averaged 5 or more markers per game. Top goal-getters were Cousy 195, McMullan 80, Formon 77, Kaftan 68, Laska 65, Oftring 61, O'Connell 52, Mullaney 33, Bollinger 20, and Baird 18.

In the free throw department Frank Oftring took first place honors from Bob Cousy, and proved to be one of the most accurate marksmen in the country from the charity stripe. The top five listed according to percentage are: Oftring (56 shots, 47 points) .839, Cousy (136-90) .660, O'Connell (30-20) .666, Laska (47-27) .574, McMullan (78-44) .543. The team as a whole converted 329 out of a possible 544 for a commendable .605 average.

While playing against some of the top competition in the country, the purple leather slingers drew only 441 personal fouls, while they themselves were fouled 471 times. Chief culprit was Bob McMullan with 92 personals. Following were Cousy 56, Oftring 50, Formon 37, and O'Connell 33.

In twenty-seven games Holy Cross amassed 688 field goals to their opponents 529. They scored 1,703 points for an average of 63 per game, while their opponents scored 1,438 for an average of 53.2 per game.

These totals have given Holy Cross a season's record of nineteen victories as against eight losses. Offensively and defensively the team was not among the top ten in the country.

Trackmen Complete Indoor Season; Team Competed In Major Meets Mile Relay Team Very Successful on Boards; Several Runners Post Creditable Times

The Crusader track team completed the indoor track season a week ago with an impressive array of prizes to add to its already crowded trophy room. The mile relay team, though, stole the spotlight this season, having competed in such outstanding events as the K. of C. Meet, Millrose Games, B. A. A. Games, and N. Y. A. C. Meet.

The relay team walked off with the honors in the Boston edition of the K. of C. by whipping Brown, Boston University, and Dartmouth, and also in the N. Y. A. C. Meet in New York by downing Colgate, Princeton, and Boston College. It finished a driving second to Fordham in the B. A. A. in Boston and third behind Maryland and the Rams once again in New York's Millrose Games. By a mishap with the baton in the K. of C. Games in New York, the team finished behind Penn State, Colgate, Villanova, and Fordham.

In the dual meet with Mass. State at Amherst, however, which incidentally the Cross won 64-49, the team copped the 700-yard relay run (Turn to Page Ten)

An Adventure in Good Smoking

Purple Pennings

By JOHN (Doc) CARROLL, Sports Editor

PROOF COMING UP? ? ? MAYBE . . .

There's been a lot of guessing about Joe Mullaney and his future in basketball. Chances are that the Old Maestro, as we've been calling him, will take a crack at pro ball for a few seasons. It's good money and the pro clubs (probably Doggie's Celtics) can always use a player of his proven ability, particularly his brains and spark. However, that will serve as only a stopgap in Joe's career in the cage game. You can't be an active player forever and Joe would be the first to admit that. So, that turns one to the consideration of Mr. Mullaney on the bench as the directing genius of some quintet in the future; Coach Mullaney, that is.

Joe did a pretty good job when serving as playing coach on that service squad that included such players as Vern Gardner of Utah. He knows basketball backwards and forwards from all angles. He looks like a good bet for a first rank coaching job in a few years. In the meantime, Mr. Mullaney will show his potentialities as a mentor within a very short time right here on the hill, probably during next week. Joe has accepted the task of taking charge of the combined all-star squad from the intramural leagues and attempting to weld this aggregation into a team within a few days.

He's got a tough proposition on his hands, since with only a few exceptions, his players are as foreign to each other as teammates as Joe is to them as a squad. Yet he'll try to give them enough teamwork to match the finesse and all-around ability of the Purple freshman outfit that only bowed once in seventeen starts in their own class. Joe's crew will have some height and plenty of shooting capacity but little chance to get used to each other's styles of play in just a few practice sessions. That's where Joe's coaching potential will be put to the acid test. If he succeeds in congealing this conglomeration of hoopsters into a ball club, it'll mark Mr. Mullaney as a fine future coach, and such a result is not impossible. If he doesn't succeed, the result still will not be a black mark against Joe, since the job is so difficult. Looks like Joe can't lose on either count.

CLOSING OUT THE CAGERS . . .

Even though Griffin Bob MacKinnon took home the Most Valuable Player award from last week's fray with Canisius, the game proved rather satisfying from the H.C. viewpoint. With a casualty list that hit the team like a ton of bricks, the ball club still went out there and whipped the Buffalo boys convincingly. Joe Mullaney finished up in the manner in which everyone hoped that he would, running the game in his old accustomed fashion. The Cooz didn't get as many as was hoped, but he played his usual terrific game and Matty Formon and Bob McMullan were really in form. Denny O'Shea did okay, too, in his sudden elevation to a starting berth. All in all, it was a good way to end the season and promises much for next year.

ON THE ALL-OPPONENT TEAM . . .

There's been some confusion on the Purple cagers' selections for the Holy Cross All-Opponent team, though this has been mainly among the players themselves due to a double polling of their choices. THAWK Reporter Bill Sherry, acting for the sports staff, contacted the ten most active players on the squad and requested their selections for first and second quintets. The compilation was figured on a basis of two points for nomination on a first team and one for being named on the second unit, slightly different than the one used by the representatives of the A.A. in conducting the A.A.'s official poll for release to the press.

The results were very similar with only minor alterations. The difference in point values placed Schmidt of St. Louis on the second team in place of Bowling Green's Share in the official poll, which is the one found on page seven. One notable shift in votes did add Tony Lavelli of Yale to the honorable mention list in the latter roster, whereas the Eli star was omitted from all ten ballots collected for the TOMAHAWK report, compiled previous to the official listings.

Golf Team Lists Seven Matches

Purple Linksman Open Crowded Slate With Babson on April 26

Forced to cram a full season's activity into three weeks between the Easter vacation and the start of the final exams, the Holy Cross golf team faces its busiest schedule in years this coming spring.

Coach Charley Donnelly will need to call on all his experience of over 20 years of coaching Purple links squads to get his team shaped up in time for the opening match with Babson Institute, the first in the rigid slate which Playing Manager John Nagle has concocted.

Since the season will open on April 26, the day after the return to classes, tryouts for the team will have to be held prior to the beginning of the vacation. There is also the possibility of an early tuneup match with a team representing Wachusett Country Club, the home course of the Crusader golfers. This match is an annual affair but due to the lack of time for action has not been definitely scheduled this season.

All matches this year will be on the new basis of one point for each triumph in individual matches, with no competition between pairs as has been the previous custom. Every team contest will consist of seven separate individual battles.

The Cross will participate in two tournaments in one way or another. The first of these is the District eliminations for the NCAA tournament, at Cambridge on May 6 and 7, with Holy Cross, Brown, M.I.T. and Dartmouth entered in one bracket. The winner of this round robin affair will enter the Eastern finals at Annapolis, Maryland on the following weekend. That same weekend is the date for the New England Intercollegiate at Boston, with team medal play set for Friday, May 13, and also qualifying rounds for the individual championship. The following two days will see the completion of Individual match play.

DR. OSMANSKI CALLS OUT SQUAD FOR SPRING DRILLS

Varsity Prospects for Coming Season Bright; Line Coach Jim Moran Makes Debut on Hill

Last Tuesday, a new football season was begun when Dr. Osmanski called out all candidates for the 1949 varsity squad. The remaining members of last year's outstanding freshman team, many of whom have already been working out in the gym under Coach Brumbaugh, have also reported for varsity drills. This year's coaching staff is the same as last year with the exception of line coach where Jim Moran has taken over for Joe Zeno.

The prospects for this year are very bright, brighter in fact than they have been for the past two years. With one year's experience in the T formation of Dr. Osmanski, the varsity holdovers of last year should be better grounded in this intricate system while the freshmen of last year are already more or less well acquainted with it.

It seems like the ends, one of the strongest positions last year, will be rather weak this year. Faced with the loss of such outstanding wingmen as Jim Dieckleman, Whip Halliday, Dick Durand, and Leo Troy the ends are definitely a question mark. Co-captain Tom Kelleher will be back to take care of one end, but the other one is wide open. Fighting for it will be holdovers Ken Oberlin, Matty Thompson, and freshmen Don Moriarty, Joe Mikutowicz, and Tom McCann. Any one of these men could come through to plug up this serious hole, but it is still a definite question mark.

The tackles seem to be rather well plugged with such holdovers as Tony Palmer, Pete Petroski, Ralph Diverio, Tex Donnally, and Walter Haas. Freshmen Dick Sweeny, Jack Felch, Stan Bohdiewicz, and Ray Lagoni must also be considered along with sophomore Bernie Degnan. This could be one of the strongest spots in the line if everyone comes through.

The guards are weakened considerably by the loss of last year's captain, Jim Reilly. Hank Beaulieu will be back at his old post, however, so that is one spot that will be well plugged. The other holdovers who will battle for Abe's job include Mike Boyle who has the inside track at present, Tracy Mehr, Jack McDermott, and Bob Jachowicz. The most promising freshmen are George Foley and Norm Zolkos. Here, too, you cannot count any one out of the running.

The centers are all set. This is without doubt the strongest position on the club. Co-captain Jim Deffley and Bill Stetter head the list of returning lettermen. These two were among the best centers in the East last Fall, and they should do at least as well this year. Ed Jurgielewicz and Pete Frasca will also be back in addition to two

DICK FAHEY, BARRY REED TOP RESPECTIVE LEAGUES IN INTRAMURAL ALL-STAR VOTE

Upperclassmen dominate the League A All-Star team which was chosen last week by Intramural head Dan Moore and the intramural referees.

Dick Fahey, lanky Junior from Belmont, Mass., proved to be the top vote getter being named on almost every ballot. Measuring 6'3", Dick is a mainstay of the Beaven III team which has compiled a season's record of 9-2. His ability off the boards combined with his scoring punch are thoroughly appreciated only by his opponents. Sophomore Dick was a member of the Wheeler IV team which won the intramural championship.

Jim Conway from Brooklyn, New York, captured one of the guard posts on the all-league team. Jim is also a member of Beaven III team and his accurate set shot has pulled many games out of the fire for the Beavens. He is fast and a slick ball handler.

The other guard spot went to Tracy Mehr, the workhorse for league-leading Alumni II. Tracy hails from Milwaukee, Wis. where he was a three-letter man at Marquette High. A guard on the Purple varsity football team, his first love is golf. He is Wisconsin State Junior Golf champion and last spring reached the semi-finals in the New England Intercollegiate Tournament.

Another member of Alumni II, Jack McCarthy, was named at a forward position. He is a smart, aggressive player, with a good set shot. Jack, whose home is in Belle Harbor, N. Y., graduated from Xavier High School and from there went into the Navy. While in the service he played on the Mare Island Naval Base team which was studded with collegiate stars from the West Coast. Jack prefers the wide open, fast break style of basketball.

ALUMNI II IN 50-16 VICTORY

Petroski Scores 23
To Pace Alumni I

League-leading Alumni IIA posted another win last week at the expense of Carlin IIIA as they romped to a 50-16 victory. Jurgielewicz with seven field goals and two fouls for 16 points led all scorers in posting all but eight teammate Moran who tossed in 13.

O'Kane IV bested Beaven I 39-33 in a hard-fought contest. Gexler of the losers was the game's high man with 19 tallies while O'Connor and the sharp-shooting Bradshaw paced the winners with 12 and 11 points respectively.

Carlin I edged out O'Kane III in a close game, 37-35. The performance of Singleton of the O'Kane club was the highlight of the contest. Pouring in 11 baskets and 5 free throws, he

The only senior to make the team is Gene DeFilippo, of Carlin I, quarterback on the varsity football team. Gene came to the Cross from East Haven, Conn. A four-year veteran of intramural basketball play, Gene has never failed to finish in the top 10 scorers. This year he has totaled 145 points for fourth place in the scoring race.

led all scorers in posting all but seven of his team's total. Carlin's top men were DeFilippo with 13 and Mulkern with 10.

In a high scoring affair Alumni I won over an Off-Campus club led by Lavin who tossed in nine field goals for 18 points. The winning outfit who scored 70 points in all was paced by Petroski's eleven baskets and two fouls for 23 and Maglio's ten for 20. The final score: Alumni I 70, the Worcesterites 63.

Fenwick IV had little trouble in vanquishing Beaven IIA, 58-33. For the victors Howland was high man with his eleven field goals for 22 points. The Beaven attack was led by the 14 points thrown by Robertson.

Wheeler II posted a 40-29 victory over Wheeler IVA led by Huggard who tossed in 11. Lanagan was the leader of the losing cause as he threw six baskets and one foul for a game high of 13 points.

HOW THEY WERE CHOSEN

The first annual TOMAHAWK All-Star Team was chosen on a secret ballot by observers who were considered best qualified to make the selections. Under the direction of Father Hart and Intramural Commissioner Dan Moore, the 15 leading referees balloted last Friday night.

Each referee chose 10 men, five on a first team and five on a second team. A first team choice rated 2 points, a second team choice 1.

Others worthy of consideration were awarded Honorable Mention.

League B Quintet From Five Teams

Quirk, Piro, Davey and
Morrill Join Carlinite
On Selected Squad

The final ballots evenly distributed one Senior, two Juniors, one Sophomore, and one Freshman to the League B, All-Star Intramural team.

The only Senior, and leading point-getter, is Barry Reed, the versatile athlete from Alameda, California. Barry is better known for his track ability, but is also a baseball player worthy of note. His specialty is sleight-of-hand work, and his tremendous speed is a valuable asset on the hardwood court.

The first-string juniors are Bill Quirk and Mike Morrill. Quirk, a member of the Beaven II aggregation, hails from Concord, N. H. where he was an outstanding athlete. He attended St. John's and led the 1946 team to the State and New England Catholic Championships. That year he was selected All-State, and All-New England. Bill is a husky, 6'4", and was an outstanding end on his high school football team.

The other junior, a local boy, is Mike Morrill, who captained St. John's of Worcester to the Catholic tournament in 1946. It was the third successive tournament team he had played on.

Sophomore Ted Davey comes from Forest Hills, N. Y., by way of Xavier High of N. Y. City. Ted is a ROTC Regular student, and in the Business Course. He captained Xavier in his Senior year, and was a starter on last year's Freshman team. The only Freshman polling enough votes to warrant him a first-string berth is diminutive Johnny Piro, from O'Kane IV. Johnny lives in Norwalk, Conn., and attended Fairfield Prep, where he played baseball in his Senior year.

Carlin II Sets Back Alumni III

Reed Leads Team to
An Easy 58-26 Victory

Five games were played in League B last week as the battle for playoff positions neared completion. Two games were won by forfeit. The Worcester Juniors forfeited to Beaven II, and the Worcester Frosh defaulted to Wheeler I.

The Worcester Frosh did show up to meet the Wheeler IV team, and defeated them 44-32. This contest was close all the way until the final period when the Frosh put on the pressure and pulled ahead. Bob Lanagan and Leo Cadrin with 12 and Vic Wells with 11 points were high for the Worcester team while Joe Breen tossed in 14 for Wheeler.

Carlin II overpowered Alumni III 58-26. For the first few minutes the teams battled on even terms but then the Carlin team went out in front and the outcome was never in doubt. With a fine display of ball handling and accurate shooting ability the Carlin team was definitely superior. Barry Reed was deadly from any spot on the floor and threw in 25 points for his Carlin five. Dick Cusack helped the Carlin cause with 11. Walt Percevez hit for 10 to be high man on the Alumni team.

In an inter-dorm game Wheeler V set back Wheeler II 58-40. The fifth good freshmen centers in Dick Murphy and Jim McIntyre.

The fullback slot even with the loss of Veto Kissell is quite adequately taken care of with Jack Reader and Bill Keville heading the list of returning lettermen. Reader is a great punter besides being a good plunger. Jack Casey and freshman Bob Doyle round out the fullback corps.

The half-back slots are both wide open, although last year's starters, Joe Byers and Bob Farrell, are returning. They can expect plenty of competition for starting berths from Angie Maglio, Fran Bryson, Dave Cook, Bud Binder, Gene Moran, Deano Davis, and Carm Manganiello. Up from the freshman team to add their help are Mel Massucco, Johnnie Turco, Gerry Boudreau, Mike Zinkiewicz, and Jack Cullity. This should give the Crusaders plenty of depth, and plenty of strength.

Who will start at the vital quarterback slot? At present this is the sixty-four dollar question everyone is asking. Since Walter Brennan has graduated, the position is wide open with about four men all in the running. Jim Murphy heads the list, but he is followed very closely by Bill DeChard, and Paul Gallo and Frank Matrango of the freshman team. Gallo is a very bright prospect and could make the grade, but then so could DeChard and Matrango. This is easily the most perplexing problem facing the coaching staff.

equalling the track record. It also distinguished itself in the Lowell City Championship Meet by coasting in over a badly-beaten Tufts outfit in the invitation mile relay. Barry Reed, Bill Gould, Tom O'Donnell, and Gerry McKernan, were the mainstays of the team this year. The two-mile relay club, which was used sparingly during the season, was narrowly beaten by Tufts in the B. A. A. but managed to stave off Springfield, Boston University, and Northeastern.

The season past produced many thrills and spills and also topnotch performances by individual members of the track squad. For instance, Quartermiller Barry Reed astonished everybody and even himself in winning the pole vault (the first time he attempted it in six years) and being second in the high jump ((an event he never practices for), all in one day at the Amherst track meet.

Another outstanding performer was Sophomore Dick Ahern who beat a fast field in the inaugural running of the Jack Ryder Mile at the V. F. W. Track Meet, won both the mile and half-mile events at Amherst, and got whiskered out in the 1000 at the K. of C. Games in Madison Square Garden after charging through a mob of 35 runners in the stretch.

Other individual accomplishments were Freshman Irv Gilson's creditable second to Olympic champion, Harrison Dillard, in the B. A. A. 45-yard high hurdles; Dick Eagan's winning both the high and low hurdles at Amherst, breaking the track record in the latter event in 4.7 seconds; George McVey's copping the two-mile run against Mass. State in 10:21.6; Bill Gould's upset win in the 35-yard dash in 4.3 at Amherst; and, finally, to top it off, George Finn's sprinting-finish victory in the 1000 against some fast competition in the Lowell meet.

Beaven III was the winner in a game with O'Kane IVB, 39-30. Hayes' 19 points and his teammate Connolly's 10 were the leaders while Moss of the O'Kane squad tossed field goals and a single free throw for 11 points.

In the final game of the action-packed week Wheeler IV found themselves on the short end of a 39-35 score in their contest with Champion. The victorious Champion team was led by the 15 points of Brennan while Wise of the Wheeler outfit was the game's high scorer with eight field goals and one foul for 19 points.

floor boys also had a definite advantage over the second floor team with fine teamwork. Jim Holleran notched 19 points to pace the victors while Joe Hintelmann was not far behind with 17. Dick Shields scored 14 for the losers.

A different Wheeler II team defeated the Worcester Sophs 38-23. The lead in this game changed hands several times until late in the third period when the Wheeler team pulled ahead and was never again headed. Bill DeChard had his eye as he hit for 11 while pacing the Wheeler attack. Bob Heon led the day-hops with 8 points.

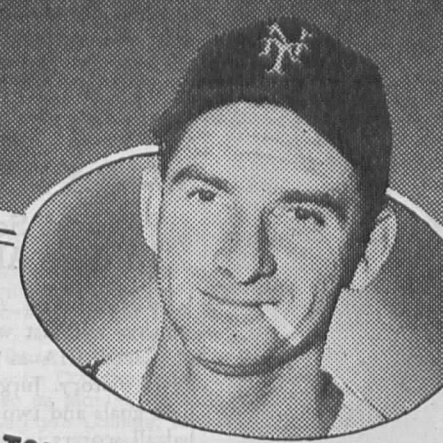

In a hard-fought battle Alumni I finally defeated Wheeler III 32-26. Wheeler led all the way in this one until the last period which saw Alumni pull up and then go on to win in a fast finish. For Alumni Chuck Bermal with 9 and Don Tylunis with 8 were high. Denny McCarthy scored 8 for Wheeler.
